

Engaging with your Class from Afar

General Resources

- So You Want to Temporarily Teach Online
- How to Be a Better Online Teacher
- How to Make Your Teaching More Engaging
- How to Give Your Students Better Feedback With Technology
- Educator Temporary School Closure for Online Learning (private Facebook group)

Tips

- Set routines
- Hold daily “check-ins”
- Use polls as lesson “hooks”
- Plan for collaboration
- Incorporate interactivity and choice
- Exercise oriented screen breaks
- Structure your online classroom (clear and navigable)
- KEEP IT SIMPLE!

Kognity

- Send readings and question assignments
- Use strength tests
- Hold a “Battle” Tournament
- Review reports to inform your teaching:
 - Performance Overview
 - Subject/Topic
 - Individual Student Coaching

Resources

- H5p (create interactives)
- Flipgrid (asynchronous video engagement tool)
- Padlet (asynchronous engagement tool)
- Hypothesis (online annotation tool)
- PHeT simulations (online math/science simulations)
- Hemingway (app that helps students strengthen writing)
- Poll Everywhere (web-based polling)
- Headspace (a collection of free meditative content called “Weathering the Storm”)
- Digital Media Design Choice Board (example with resources)

Exams

- Google Forms (use the assessment template)
- Exam.net (free through 2020)
- Socrative (free and paid plans)
- Kognity (you can now create your own questions!)

Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0)

Tahnja Wilson
Educator, MBA/MIM
@TahnjaWilson
LinkedIn