Questions for thought and discussion

1. What reasons would you give for saying, 'Cyberbullying is ethically wrong'? If you are discussing this topic with others, do different people in your group offer different reasons, even if you reach the same conclusion?
2. This video suggests that people who know about cases of cyberbullying should do something about it - that acting is a moral responsibility. Do you agree? In what ways might people in different roles have different responsibilities for dealing with cyberbullying?
